Morning News

Hello Medina,

This is your Master Councilor, Alex Marshall. I hate to say it but my term is finally coming to a close within the next month. Looking back, I feel that this term was my most successful one yet. We initiated 15 new members, which is more than I initiated in my first two terms combined. I am very proud of all the members of Medina Chapter for all their hard work. Even though my term is almost over, that does not mean that we can just stop trying until the next term. There are still a lot of events as well as an Obligatory Day to still be observed. So as long as you guys keep coming to the meetings, I will keep coming up with events.

Fraternally,
Alex Marshall

Advisory Council

We are excited to announce the Re-Organization of our Parents Club. We were forced to suspend its meetings last summer due to the lack of interest. We are also, very happy to hear about all of the "new" DeMolay Parents who want to get involved with their son. The Re-Organization meeting will be held on February 7, 2006 at 6:30pm at the Medina Masonic Temple. We hope to see all of the parents there.

Sports

Basketball has begun, but I am sorry to say we started off the season with a loss. I know we had some members who could not make it to the first game, and I hope to see more out next week.

The News at Noon

Hey guys,

This is your Junior Councilor, Adam Marshall. Guys it is great to see us bringing in 15 new members, but we could still use some more. Sorry that the tobogganing trip was cancelled, but we still saw a pretty good movie. The tobogganing trip will probably be rescheduled. Thank you to all the guys who helped out with the degrees and who helped with the informational nights.

Fraternally,
Adam Marshall

Evening News

Hello Brothers,

The fruit sale has begun. The packets were handed out last meeting, so if you didn't get yours call Dad Shuler. We need to sell as much fruit as we can so we can rebuild our treasury.

Fraternally,

John Weatherford
